Leave of Absence without Pay for Educational Purposes

Leave-of-absence without pay for educational purposes is considered on an individual basis. As soon as such a possibility is contemplated, the appropriate division chair or supervisor along with the appropriate vice president should be consulted. Formal requests for an educational leave-of-absence without pay must be made at least ninety (90) days in advance of the leave.