Eastern Washington University is pleased to announce the First Annual Eastern Washington Student Philosophy Conference. The conference will take place April 9-10 in Spokane and Cheney, Washington.

Keynote speaker: Dr. Robert Arp

Dr. Arp is the author of Scenario Visualization: An Evolutionary Account of Creative Problem Solving (MIT Press). He is the co-editor of Philosophy of Biology: An Anthology (Wiley-Blackwell), as well as Batman and Philosophy and South Park and Philosophy (Wiley-Blackwell).

We invite papers from both undergraduate and graduate students. The receipt deadline for submissions is Monday, February 1st, 2010. Submit full drafts by email as Word file attachments to philosophy@eagles.ewu.edu. Papers should be prepared for blind review, with author name, affiliation, graduate or undergraduate status, phone number, and email address placed only on the cover page. Papers should be less than 30 minutes reading time (approximately 8-12 pages).

We also welcome inquiries from potential commentators and session chairs.

Notification of acceptance will be sent by email on or before February 15, 2010.

Please bring this announcement to the attention of interested students.
