

Requirements:

- Be knowledgeable of NIC, its programs and activities
- Remain in good academic standing
- Attend all required meeting and training sessions
- Maintain professional standards when representing North Idaho College.
- Attend all of the Summer Orientation sessions, unless other arrangements are made.

Duties and Responsibilities:

Fall and Spring:

- Orientation Leader's Leadership Class (SOCS 204F), Spring 2008
- Weekly meetings
- Office hours: 2 hours of scheduled hours per week
- Assist in retention events (up to 4 in fall and 2 in spring)
- December and January Orientation Advising & Registration Sessions
- ASNIC Election Booths Fall/Spring
- Other college events (i.e. NIC foundation reception, booth at fair, etc.)
- Leadership Development Activities including a weekend retreat

Summer:

- Attend and lead all (10) Orientation Advising & Registration Sessions (OARS)

Benefits:

- Improve Leadership skills
- Develop group dynamic, communication, and public speaking skills.
- Network with faculty, students, and administration
- Enhance resume
- Scholarship $$$ (covers the cost of in state/in county tuition).

Turn in application to Heather Erikson, in the ASNIC office 2nd Floor of the SUB

Questions? Call Heather Erikson 208.665.5459

Orientation Leaders Application

DUE March 6, 2007

I. General Information

Name _____ Cell Phone _____

College Address _____ Local Phone _____

Email _____ Major _____

First Semester at NIC _____ Estimated Graduation Date _____

High School attended/City _____

NIC O-Leaders are required to remain in "good academic standing" do you qualify? _____

II. Please list two references from the NIC Faculty or Staff:

1. Name _____

Position _____ Phone Number _____

2. Name _____

Position _____ Phone Number _____

III. Questions: On a separate sheet of paper please type or print your answers.

Please keep answers to 200 words max.

1. Please list activities and leadership positions you have held that qualify you to be an Orientation Leader.
2. Identify qualities or skills you feel are important in being an effective leader, and how those skills relate to your qualities and abilities.
3. Describe two of your personal strengths that will contribute to your success as an Orientation Leader.
4. What do you think is North Idaho College's greatest strength?
5. Besides being involved, what single piece of advice would you give to a new student at North Idaho College? What is your most positive memory about your first semester at NIC?

Turn in application to Heather Erikson, by Jan 30, 2007

ASNIC Office | 2nd Floor of the SUB

208.665.5459 | heather_erikson@nic.edu