Diversity Events presents

UNDERSTANDING POVERTY
A DAY OF LEARNING
Tuesday, April 21

COMMON THEME SYMPOSIUM

MORNING SESSION

9:45 - 9:55 a.m.
Opening remarks  Maureen Steinel, Sociology Instructor

10 - 10:15 a.m.
“Individualism and Inequality”  Patrick Lippert, Philosophy Instructor

10:20 - 10:35 a.m.
“Health Care Obstacles and Options”  Peggy Margaret Wasserman, Nursing Instructor
And Ginger Seaman, Medication Specialist, Heritage Health

10:40 - 10:55 a.m.
"The Unequal Burden of Economic Inequality: Poverty and Race in the U.S."
Dr. James Love, Sociology Instructor

11 - 11:07 a.m.
“Simple Ways to Fight World Poverty, Without Donating or Volunteering”
Michael Holloman, North Idaho College student

11:10 - 11:17 a.m.
“The Economic Exploitation of Sub-Saharan Africa in an Era of Globalization"
Ladd Serwat, North Idaho College student

11:20 - 11:45 a.m.
Q & A panel session with morning presenters

AFTERNOON SESSION

1 - 2 p.m.
Community Speaker Panel  Bob Driscoll, Idaho Department of Health and Welfare
And Jeff Conroy, St. Vincent De Paul

2 - 2:15 p.m.
Awards

2:30 – 2:45 p.m.
Closing remarks  Dr. James Love, Sociology Instructor