Gonzaga University's Institute for Hate Studies is recognizing the International Day of Peace with a series of events designed to bring important discussions on topics of peace and peace building on our campuses, in our communities, and around the world.

Focusing on educators’ roles in teaching and developing students into leaders that will work for peace, this workshop is open to higher education faculty in the Spokane region.

Guests will be also treated to an opening reading from the winner of the 10th Annual Eva Lassman Memorial Writing Contest, Gabriel Marquis.
This is an invite-only event and space is limited, so please click the link below to RSVP today.

Wednesday, September 21, 2016
3:00–5:00 p.m.

Gonzaga University
John J. Hemmingson Center
Lower Level Auditorium (Room 004)
(Map)

Click here to RSVP

For questions, please contact Dr. Ron Large, Associate Academic Vice President.