

2023-2024 Parental Refusal to Provide Information and Support for Federal Financial Aid

Under the Federal Law, a Financial Aid Administrator may, but is not required to, offer a dependent student an Unsubsidized Direct Stafford Loan if the dependent student's parent(s) have stopped providing financial support to the student, will not financially support the student in the future, and decline to complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

A student is only eligible to submit this parental refusal form if:

- Parent information is NOT already on the FAFSA.
- Parent(s) are unwilling to provide information on the FAFSA or for FAFSA verification.
- Parent(s) refuse to contribute to the student's education.
- Parent(s) do not claim the student as a dependent for income tax purposes.
- Student demonstrates self-sufficiency.

Student Acknowledges (Check all the boxes below):

- I provide my own financial support.
- I understand that I will not be considered an independent student.
- I understand that I am not a candidate for dependency override.
- I understand I am not eligible for any Federal Grants.
- I understand I am not eligible for any Federal Subsidized Loans.
- I understand that I am ONLY eligible for Federal Unsubsidized Loans.
- I understand that Federal Unsubsidized Loans accrue interest beginning the day the funds are disbursed.

The maximum annual Unsubsidized Direct Stafford Loan amount that a dependent student may receive is the base annual loan limit for the student's grade level plus the additional Unsubsidized Direct Stafford Loan amount of $2,000 for a dependent student. By signing below, you agree to provide additional information if requested by Cardinal Central. Please allow 2-3 weeks for processing.
