Welcome

You’ve taken a critical step in your career development by participating in the Idaho Employment and Training (E&T) Program. This is one of the many programs that have partnered with the E&T Program, operated by MAXIMUS. To you, that means that by participating, you automatically have access to additional services to help you achieve your goals.

We're so glad you're here!

Services include:

- A personal Career Coach to help you on your path to success
- Connecting you with one of our partners to help you obtain your GED, trainings, or certifications
- Transportation assistance
- Specialty equipment (including tools and uniforms)
- Resumé assistance and interview preparation

Questions?

MAXIMUS is here to help.
Give us a call at 1-844-977-1600 to ask any questions or to schedule an appointment.

In accordance with federal law and U.S. Department of Agricultural (USDA) policy, the Department of Health and Welfare is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, political beliefs, or disability.
Funding provided by United States Department of Agriculture.
You may be eligible for SNAP
Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program

SNAP, also known as Food Stamps, helps eligible families put healthy food on their table. Families get a debit-like card to use at the grocery store, farmer's markets, and other food outlets.

To learn more about the SNAP program, including eligibility requirements, visit Live Better Idaho at www.livebetteridaho.org.

To find out if you are eligible for Idaho's SNAP program, call us at 1-855-289-1427, and let the worker know that you were referred by a MAXIMUS partner.

In accordance with federal law and U.S. Department of Agricultural (USDA) policy, the Department of Health and Welfare is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, political beliefs, or disability.

Funding provided by United States Department of Agriculture.