Common Read Events

Faculty, staff, and students are all welcome to attend the common read events planned for Fall Semester 2015. Engage in intellectual inquiry and discourse about the common read, Nickel and Dimed: On (Not) Getting By In America by Barbara Ehrenreich, by attending the Roundtable Discussions. Watch a satirical documentary film related to the common read at the film showing of The American Ruling Class. Be a part of this exciting opportunity to learn more about issues of socioeconomic diversity in support of the common theme this year at NIC.

Roundtable Discussions:
Noon to 1 p.m
Sept. 16 and Nov. 11
SUB Driftwood Bay Room

Film Showing:
2:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 22
SUB Lake Coeur d’Alene Room

Sponsored by the Ad Hoc Cardinal Reads Committee and Diversity Steering Committee.

For questions, please contact
Holly Edwards   holly.edwards@nic.edu   (208) 769-5990
Maureen Steinel  maureen.steinel@nic.edu   (208) 769-3314

All of the events are free and include light refreshments.